

Values Matter Miami Challenge

November

The Core Value for November is Citizenship. A good citizen always does the right thing for their community. Citizenship means obeying rules and laws, and contributing to your community and country.

The Values Matter Miami November challenge is Fellow Citizen. Identify an individual in your community (a community member, elected official, etc.) you believe exhibits citizenship, and share at least one reason why.

Submit your Citizenship Challenge entry here.

Helping Students Succeed in School

Values Matter Miami Challenge

November

Name: _____

School: _____

Grade: _____

Directions: Identify an individual in your community (a community helper, elected official, etc.) you believe exhibits citizenship, and share at least one reason why.

